The Structure of the Text of the Book of Amos

By PRESIDENT WILLIAM RAINEY HARPER.
38 pp., 4to, paper, $1.00 net, postpaid $1.06.

An arrangement of the text of the Book of Amos in strophes. Interpolated passages are separated from the original material and printed in a parallel column. Necessary emendations are incorporated in the text, the Massoretic text being indicated in footnotes. A new translation accompanies the text, and it is arranged in the same manner upon the opposite page. The purpose of the treatment is to restore as nearly as possible the original artistic form of the prophetic utterances and of the later accretions now contained in the book.

Some Principles of Literary Criticism and Their Appli- cation to the Synoptic Problem

By PROFESSOR ERNEST DEWITT BURTON.
60 pp., 4to, paper, $1.00 net, postpaid $1.06.

The aim of this paper is not to review the history of the numerous efforts that have been made in the last century to solve the problem which is created by the fact of the marked resemblances of the first three gospels to one another, intimately interwoven as they are with not less marked differences; but, first, to formulate principles applicable to problems of this class, as textual critics have long ago done for the problems in their field; secondly, to state the main facts respecting the relation of the synoptic gospels to one another, and, thirdly, to suggest certain conclusions to which the correlation of these principles and facts seems to lead. Both in its point of approach and in its conclusions the paper departs in important respects from the path that has hitherto been followed by students of the gospel.

Some Literary Remains of Rim Sin (Arioch), King of Larsa about 2285 B. C.

By PROFESSOR IRA MAURICE PRICE. 32 pp., 4to, paper, 75 cents net, postpaid 81 cents.

Arioch of Ellasar was one of the confederates of Chedorlaomer of Elam when the latter made his military campaign against rebellious subjects in the West, in the twenty-third century B. C., as described in Gen. 14. He was an Elamite conqueror who, through his father Kudurmabuk, had secured the sovereignty over several of the large cities of lower Babylonia.

Several of his dedicatory inscriptions have been found in recent years. Eleven of these documents, written in the so-called Sumerian language, all comparatively short, are published in this collection in translation and translation in parallel columns. Two of them are published in the original language on inserted plates. A full list of the proper names and a glossary completes this contribution to the studies of the literature of the pre-Hammurabi period of Babylonian history.

The Great English Magazines

Do you know them—know what they are publishing—read them—subscribe for them? There is the Edinburgh Review and the Quarterly; the Contemporary, Fortnightly, Monthly, and Nineteenth Century Reviews; Blackwood's, Cornhill, Temple Bar, Longman's, Macmillan's, and Pall Mall Magazines; the Spectator, the Saturday Review, and others. No matter how many American magazines you read, you cannot afford to altogether pass by our English contemporaries.

The LIVING AGE for 1904 has contained important articles relating to European and American politics and to affairs in the far East. There have been notable scientific articles, valuable essays, sketches of travel, etc. The fiction has been of a high order—both serial and short stories; the best new English poetry has also been given.

With all its splendid record for over sixty years, never has the LIVING AGE been more valuable or essential to the reader of cosmopolitan tastes than it will be for the coming twelve months.

Published every Saturday, subscription $6.00 a year. A trial subscription
